SENT TO THE SENATE

Another Batch of Nominations Made by the President.

SEVERAL IMPORTANT ONES.

Judge Horace H. Lurton, Present Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee Nominated to Be Judge Jackson's Successor—The Other Nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The president sent in another batch of nominations to the senate yesterday. They were as follows:

John S. Seymour of Connecticut to be commissioner of patents.

Silas W. Lamoreux of Wisconsin to be commissioner of the general land office.

William H. Sims of Mississippi to be first assistant secretary of the interior.

Edward A. Bowers of Washington to be assistant commissioner of the general land office.

Henry C. Bell to be second deputy commissioner of pensions.

Horace H. Lurton of Tennessee to be United States circuit judge of the Sixth judicial district.

Frank E. White of Nebraska to be marshal of the United States for the district of Nebraska.

Max Judd of Missouri to be consul general of the United States to Vienna.

John J. Carter of Louisiana to be collector of the internal revenues for the district of Louisiana.

Also the following postmasters: Philip Zoercher at Tell City, Ind.; Frank D. Hoy at Point Pleasant, W. Va.; Miss Lela Lyns at Groesbeck, Tex.; William C. Hall at Sweet Springs, Mo.; Neri A. Hanna at Cadiz, O.; Charles F. Chaso at Atlantic, Ia.; William T. England at Vanburen, Ark.

These nominations were received with mingled feelings by congressmen, but no talk is heard from senators who did not get their men chosen of opposing confirmation. The nominations showed that the president is not going to treat the congressmen as entitled to dispose of the places, and that while their recommendations will have weight, he will not hesitate to appoint other men than those recommended if he sees fit.

Horace H. Lurton, who succeeds Justice Jackson on the circuit bench, is the present chief justice of the supreme court of Tennessee. It was for this place that President Harrison nominated Benjamin Hanchett of Michigan, which nomination failed for lack of time in the senate to act upon it. He is a man about 45 years of age and a native of Tennessee, where he was born of parents in humble circumstances.

The Hebrew race and the chess players are both honored in the selection of Max Judd for consul general at Vienna, for Judd was the champion amateur chess player of the country, until the brilliant Showalter of Kentucky wrested the title from him not long ago. He is a large cloak manufacturer and was about to retire from business. He is an Austrian by birth. The Austrians refused to receive the Rev. Mr. McKelley as minister some years ago, because the court would not be willing to associate with a Hebrew, but this objection does not apply to consuls general who are sent to countries chiefly for social reasons.

John S. Seymour, nominated to be commissioner of patents, is a lawyer by profession, about 45 years of age, and a resident of Norwalk, Conn. Two years ago he was elected state senator, which was his first public service.

William H. Sims, who is named as first assistant secretary of the interior, has a fine record in his native state of Mississippi. He was a gallant soldier of the Confederacy, and left a leg upon the field of battle. He is a resident of Columbus and said to be a man of excellent parts; an eminent lawyer, and a good politician.

John J. Carter, nominated to be collector of internal revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken active part in state politics for the past 15 or 20 years, serving for a time as a representative in the Louisiana legislature.

Henry C. Bell, appointed second deputy commissioner of pensions, has been for the last eight years or more a clerk in the pension office and has risen by merit to a position of responsibility there. He is a native of Illinois and was appointed from that state.

E. A. Bowers, is a young lawyer of this city, a college graduate and a man of broad culture. He is a native of Connecticut. Some years ago he went to South Dakota and began the practice of the law, but about two or three years ago he transferred his practice to this city, where he has been acting in the capacity of counsel for the National Forestry association, of which he is an active member. His appointment is supposed to have been influenced by a desire on the part of the president to give greater prominence in the land office to the important subject of forestry than it has heretofore received.

S. W. Lamoreux of Wisconsin, nominated to be commissioner of the general land office, is a warm personal friend of Senator Vilas, and received the unqualified endorsement of that gentleman for the place to which he has been appointed. Mr. Lamoreux is a native of New York, but went to Wisconsin before the war. He has served his state as senator and district attorney, but for the last 14 years has been the county judge of the court having civil jurisdiction.

Judge Lurton Will Accept.

NASHVILLE, March 23.—When notified that President Cleveland had nominated him United States circuit judge for the Sixth district, Chief Justice

Lurton smilingly said he would accept. Judge Lurton is about 52 years of age. He has been on the state supreme bench for seven years, and was a chancery judge for eight. He is considered the greatest constitutional lawyer of Tennessee, and was unanimously endorsed by the bar of this state two weeks ago. Circuit Judge W. K. McAllister of Nashville will probably succeed Lurton on the state bench.

Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The senate yesterday confirmed the nominations of Frank B. Burke of Indiana to be attorney of the United States for the district of Indiana, and David T. Guyton of Mississippi to be marshal of the United States for the northern district of Mississippi, and William H. Hawkins of Indiana to be marshal of the United States for the district of Indiana.

CHEROKEE STRIP.

It May Not Be Opened to Settlement For a Long Time Yet.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—When the senate ratified the treaty for the cession to the United States of the Cherokee strip it inserted a clause which provides that the compensation for the land is to be made in time payments in place of the requirement that the government pay cash as was contemplated in the agreement originally drawn up with the Indians. This modification of the treaty has not been accepted by the Indians, but will be considered in their legislative body—the Cherokee council—at a meeting to be held at the capital of the nation next Monday.

The early opening of the strip will be entirely dependent upon the action of the council, for should it reject the modification of the treaty made by the senate, then it will be necessary for the matter to be brought before congress, which would of course indefinitely delay the opening of the lands to settlement. If, on the other hand, the council accepts the change, the anxious settlers who are now hoping to secure a home in the new country will have an opportunity to gratify their desire.

While the officials of the interior department are making active preparations to open the strip, yet they say that the public should be made acquainted with the exact status of the case, so that if any unusual delay occurs in the opening of the lands to settlement the responsibility will not rest with the department.

THE ASPEN SILVER QUEEN.

The Statue Unveiled in the Presence of a Large Crowd—Worth $20,000.

ASPEN, Colo., March 23.—The unveiling ceremonies of the Aspen Silver Queen were enacted Tuesday evening in the presence of a large crowd. Mayor Rose, chairman of the citizens' committee, made a happy speech of acceptance and paid the designer, H. L. Johnson, a graceful compliment upon the success achieved. The piece included the pedestal bases, canopy, etc., composed of gold and silver and Aspen ores, reaches a height of 18 feet, while the base is 10 by 12.

The effect produced by an artistic blending of precious stones and metals is beautiful. The work represents a typical American maiden sitting upon her throne, modestly accepting the homage paid by her subjects. The subject is offered as Aspen's exhibit to the Columbian exposition. The piece is made in sections, and after a few days' stay at the armory will be packed up and taken to Chicago. The intrinsic value of this work, including ores, is over $20,000.

Tragedy Caused by Illit Love.

YORK, Pa., March 23.—A terrible tragedy was enacted at Stoverstown, eight miles from this city, last night. Daniel Hamm, a married man, shot a married woman named Glatfelter, with whom he had been intimate, and fatally wounded her. He then turned the revolver on himself and put a bullet through his brain, dying almost instantly. The deed was committed in Mrs. Glatfelter's home, her husband and a number of neighbors being present at the time of the tragedy.

Great Storm Raging in the West.

ST. PAUL, March 23.—Dispatches from fifty points in western and southern Minnesota and South Dakota indicate that a great storm is raging at Faribault and neighboring points. Eight inches of snow fell, and this was followed by a heavy fall of hail accompanied by thunder and lightning. West of Aberdeen, S. D., the fall was so great as to delay trains. At St. Paul it began snowing at 5 p. m. and had developed into a driving sleet storm.

Street Car Crushed.

OSHKOSH, Wis., March 23.—A north-bound freight train of the Northern Pacific road collided with a street car here yesterday. The driver and the horses escaped injury. The injured are: Miss Carrie Swasey, leg cut off and injured internally; C. W. Davis, cut and bruised about the head and chest; Mr. Davis, president of the German-American bank, and well known throughout Wisconsin.

Resignation and Appointment.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Secretary Morton of the agricultural department yesterday called for the resignation of J. R. Dodge, statistician of the department. Mr. Dodge at once sent in his resignation, which was accepted, to take effect April 1, and Judge Henry A. Robinson of Detroit was appointed to his place.

Fire Caused by Mice.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 23.—Judge Hagan's house, occupied by William Beville and S. B. McIlhenny, burned to the ground early yesterday morning. Mice playing with matches caused the fire. The loss was $2,000.

ANN ARBOR STRIKERS

Second Day's Proceedings of the Great Labor Trial.

SEVERAL WITNESSES EXAMINED

The Testimony Showed That the Order of Judge Ricks Was Not Shown to the Men Until After They Had Declared They Would Not Handle Ann Arbor Cars—Dramatic Scene in Court.

TOLAND, March 23.—The hearing of the Lake Shore engineers and firemen who refused to handle Ann Arbor freight was continued in the United States circuit court yesterday. The testimony of the various officials showed that the order of Judge Ricks was not shown to the men until after they had said that they would not handle the Ann Arbor cars. The officials intended that the order should be the last resort after persuasion had failed.

The testimony brings out the fact, however, that the men said before they saw the order that they would not handle the cars and would quit the service of the company first.

The engineers' attorney, Mr. Southard, saw in this a good point and dwelt upon it in his cross-examination. Questioning Superintendent Sheldon on the point he asked:

"You showed the men the order after they had said that they had quit?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Sheldon.

"Had you re-engaged them when you showed them the order of the court?"

"No."

At this point Attorney Potter of the Lake Shore placed in evidence a rule of the company to the effect that the men must look at the bulletin board before they take their train. On the night in question the order of the court was posted on the board.

General Superintendent Canniff of the Lake Shore testified that he had received a telegram from J. W. Watson, a Lake Shore engineer, saying: "We ask you in the interest of peace and harmony not to ask Lake Shore engineers to handle Ann Arbor freight."

"I answered," said Mr. Canniff, "that the request could not be granted, inasmuch as the business of the Ann Arbor, when turned over to us, was our business also, and as common carriers we were obliged to handle it by law. I called a meeting of some 35 of our engineers and told them that it was my desire that we should not be brought into this trouble, and to impress it upon the men that it was our duty to transact the business. I told them that the law was plain, and if it was violated it would be a serious matter, and that some one would be responsible. Later I received a telegram from Mr. Watson stating that the strike could not be settled honorably, and that the laws of the brotherhood would be enforced."

J. W. Watson was then placed on the stand and asked in accordance with what rule of the brotherhood he sent such a notice. "The rule that allowed every man to do as he pleased as an individual," said Mr. Watson. The attorney laughingly stated that it was a strange thing for a body to enact laws to allow men to do as they pleased. Mr. Watson was asked to produce the rule. He did not have it. He was requested to repeat it from memory. He did not remember it, not even the substance. Finally, after being hard pressed, he stated that the rule he had in mind was to the effect that brotherhood men must not handle the freight of any road on which the brotherhood men are out on a strike.

"Are you on some committee relating to the brotherhood?" asked Attorney Potter of Mr. Watson.

"Yes, the general committee of adjustment."

"By what authority did you send certain telegrams to Lake Shore officials relative to the action the men would take?"

"By the authority vested in me by the action of the engineers."

Mr. Watson was told at the close of the morning session to bring the rules of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers into court when he returned in the afternoon.

The examination of Mr. Watson was resumed when the afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock. Then followed a series of questions by Mr. Potter, attorney for the Lake Shore, which elicited the fact that Watson had issued orders to the effect of those contained in Rule 12 after he had been notified of Judge Ricks' decision. This cross-examination of the witness brought out nothing new, and at this point the complainant rested his case.

Leonard Clark, a Lake Shore engineer and one of the only two employees of the company who are members of the brotherhood, was first placed on the stand for the defense. The counsel for the company had hoped to win out of Clark an admission of his resignation under these circumstances, but eventually stated that such had been the case.

Quite a dramatic scene ensued when Clark, in reply to a question from Mr. Potter as to why he refused to handle Ann Arbor freight, said: "I'm pretty near my grave now, and I don't want to go through the rest of my life a scab." The spectators applauded this loudly while Judge Ricks vainly endeavored to restore order.

William Rntger, another Lake Shore engineer, was on the stand when the court adjourned. So far his testimony has been unimportant.

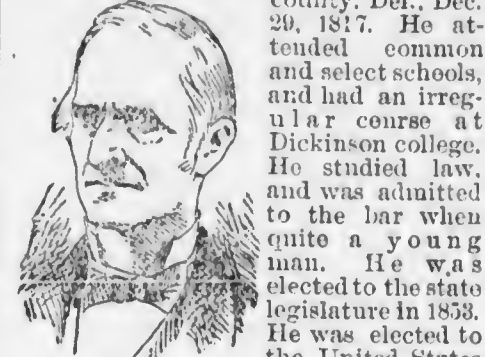

NEW YORK, March 23.—The Princess Kaiulani of Hawaii sailed for England yesterday on the steamer Majestic, accompanied by her guardian, T. H. Davies, Mrs. Davies and Miss Davies.

ELI SAULSBURY DEAD.

For Seventeen Years He Was in the United States Senate.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 23.—Ex-United States Senator Eli Saulsbury died at 12:15 yesterday afternoon. He had been unconscious since Tuesday night.

Senator Saulsbury was born in Kent county, Del., Dec. 20, 1817. He attended common and select schools, and had an irregular course at Dickinson college. He studied law, and was admitted to the bar when quite a young man. He was elected to the state legislature in 1853. He was elected to the United States senate as a Democrat to succeed his brother, Willard Saulsbury. He was in the senate for 17 years. His term of service expired March 9, 1890.

A Still in the Treetops.

RALEIGH, March 23.—Revenue officers report the seizure of an illicit distillery in Moore county operated by Lawrence Goins, in the middle of Tuckahoe pond. The only means of access was by boat. Goins had cut off the tops of some trees and on these built a shanty in which was the moonshine whisky outfit. The still, of 65 gallons capacity, was in full blast. Goins was completely surprised; admitted that he had conducted the business some time and said he thought his location entirely safe.

Sawmill Boiler Lets Go.

MOUNT EBER, Ky., March 23.—A report from Leatherwood has just been received here of a disastrous sawmill boiler explosion at that place yesterday. Ed Hensly, engineer, was instantly killed, and T. A. Baneroff, sawyer, fatally wounded. George Wicks and Hen Madden were dangerously wounded, while little Ed Lance, the 6-year-old son of the proprietor, was blown 100 feet and is thought to be fatally hurt. The fireman, named Pack, had started for home, and thus escaped. The mill belonged to H. E. Lance & Son.

Fight Between Whites and Blacks.

MERIDIAN, Miss., March 23.—The town of Purvis, Miss., on the New Orleans Northeastern railroad 100 miles south of Meridian, was destroyed by incendiaries last night. Almost every store and residence in the place was wiped out. It is learned that the conflagration was the result of a bitter feeling between the white people and the negroes growing out of the arrest of a negro preacher. The negroes fired the town in revenge. A posse of citizens have left Meridian for Purvis on a special train.

Double Tragedy.

SALEM, Mo., March 23.—A double tragedy was enacted here late Monday night. J. C. Davis was in love with Miss May Miller. He made her a proposal of marriage, which she rejected. About 9 o'clock Monday evening he met her on the street and again proposed marriage, and being refused drew a revolver and fired two shots at the young woman, each taking effect in the left breast and causing instant death. Davis then turned the weapon on himself and blew his brains out.

Carriage Workers Make Demands.

BOSTON, March 23.—The carriage and wagon workers of this city have made a demand for nine hours' work and ten hours' pay on and after March 27, and threaten to strike in case their demands are not granted. The union has received the assurance of the International Carriage and Wagon Workers' union that it will stand by the Boston men in the event of a strike, which seems not altogether unlikely, as many of the manufacturers say they will resist their demands.

Arrested for Horse Stealing.

WEST NEWTON, Pa., March 23.—Robert T. Clark of Greensburg was arrested here yesterday and locked up on a charge of horse stealing. During the afternoon he offered for sale a valuable horse at about one-third the real value of the animal. He was at once turned over to the authorities, and this evening he confessed that he had stolen the horse from Paul Dry, a Greensburg grocer. He also said that he was a member of an organized gang working in this county.

Southern Immigration Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, March 23.—The convention in the interest of immigration was held Tuesday. It was called by Governor Foster, who is anxious to attract settlers from other states to take up their abode in Louisiana. It is proposed to establish a permanent bureau for the dissemination of information concerning the resources of the state, and to organize associations in the different counties to co-operate with the state and private bureaus.

Strike Brewing.

MILWAUKEE, March 23.—A strike is brewing among the operators upon the northern division of the Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western railroad, and it may spread over the entire line. It is stated that the men are preparing to go out April 1. According to the statement of one of the operators the men have been dissatisfied for some time as to wages, but they were unable to remonstrate effectively for they were non-organized.

Can't Commence Too Soon.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 23.—The minister of public works is about to start on a tour of sanitary inspection along the lines of the railway in the province of Nijni-Novgorod, Yaroslavl and Orel where a number of fatal cases of cholera are reported.

SENATE'S SESSION.

Change of President Pro Tem. of That Body.

MR. HARRIS WIELDS THE GAVEL.

His Induction Into Office Was One of the Features of the Day's Session—But Little Done in Either the Public or Executive Session.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Senator Harris of Tennessee now wields the gavel as president pro tem of the senate in the absence of Vice President Stevenson. His induction into office was one of the features of yesterday's session. After a little routine business had been transacted Mr. Manderson made a graceful speech of thanks to his colleagues for the honor they had done him in electing him president pro tem. Recognizing a change of conditions he now tendered his resignation and Senator Harris was thereupon elected.

A request from Senator Cullom, to be relieved from duty as a member of a commission to investigate the workings of the executive departments, brought out the fact that there was no method by which the vacancy could be filled, and Senator Hear declared unconstitutional the recent appointment of senators and representatives on the international monetary conference and the Behring sea commission. He wanted the matter referred to the committee on privileges and elections, but Senator Cullom withdrew his request.

The senate then went into executive session and confirmed the nominations of Frank B. Burke to be district attorney and William H. Hawkins to be marshal for the district of Indiana.

The question of reorganization of the senate officers was discussed. The Democrats proposed to compromise by agreeing that the Republican employees should be permitted to draw salaries until July 1. The Republicans said they would hold a caucus and decide whether or not to accept the offer. The senate then adjourned.

FIRE IN A HOTEL.

Heroic Actions of the Night Clerk Saves the Guests From Death.

PITTSBURGH, March 23.—A fire occurred in the Hotel Staley on Pennsylvania avenue, yesterday morning. A number of lives would doubtless have been lost but for the prompt action of Night Clerk Hannon. Reaching the second floor he discovered the rear of the building was burning and the smoke was going up the stairway to the upper floors.

The smoke was so dense that if Hannon had not been familiar with every step of the way he would never have got to the third story. As it was he was almost exhausted when he finally reached the top floor. His danger increased every minute he remained up stairs, but he did not start down until he had given the warning all over the house.

Before any one of the guests occupying the rooms above the second floor could get out the hallways were filled with smoke, and the frightened people could not reach the stairs.

Employees of the hotel ran to Barker's alley, at the side of the hotel, and shouted to the imprisoned guests to use the fire escapes. Many were already on the platforms, and the rush from the only way of escape nearly caused a panic.

The fire department arrived in the meantime and in a short time the firemen on No. 3 truck had two ladders up to the fourth story relieving the jam at the fire escapes.

Theodore Wilson of this city tried to get to the stairway, and as the floor was on fire, his feet and legs were badly burned. He was carried out by the firemen.

The origin of the fire is a mystery, as it started in a room in which there was no fire during the night. The damage to the building will not exceed $3,000.

Attempted to Kill His Wife.

NELSONVILLE, O., March 23.—Charles E. Haller, a Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo night brakeman, attempted to kill his wife Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock. While she was sleeping he struck her a heavy blow on the left temple with a hatchet, fracturing her skull and making a dangerous wound. Haller came here from Cincinnati recently, where he was employed in the Big Four yards. He married Alice M. Reed, of Hamley Run, this county, in August, 1892. He claims she has been unfaithful to him, and it was jealousy that drove him to attempt the murder. The woman may recover.

Evil-Doing Book Agents.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 23.—Indiana township trustees are the victims of swindles on the part of book agents. Agents call the book marts for old sets of encyclopedias at $13.50 a set, and sell to trustees at $50. Webster's dictionaries of the 1843 edition, can be bought at 89 cents a volume. The agents have the binding on the books changed and sell them to the trustees for from $3 to $7.

Is Today a Wife.

ATLANTA, March 23.—Miss Selika Muegge, the beautiful Italian girl who, with her lover, shot herself in a hotel here a month ago for love, was married yesterday to John Picola of Cincinnati. Her other lover died and she recovered. This successful suitor came here three weeks ago.

For Kentucky, increasing cloudiness, followed by showers; warm, southerly winds, followed by much colder, northerly wind by Friday.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Tribune makes a frank confession for a Republican. He says the Treasury is to-day "in absolute need of $50,000,000, more money than it has on hand." The Republicans were not put to such straight as this when the Democrats turned the Treasury over to them four years ago.

ADAMS & Co., of New York, a firm that believes in printer's ink properly distributed, has contracted with the Recorder of that city for a page in every Sunday issue for a year. It is said Representative Dean of Boyd County has not shown up in the Legislature for six months, and it is safe to add that he has continued to draw his salary of $5 a day right along. If he is guilty of doing this, it is simply a case of downright robbery. It seems rather strange the Legislature does not take some effective steps to put an end to absenteeism. It could be done, if those who are on hand would but do their duty.

The country has been told how the McKinley bill was going to shut out foreign-made goods, and make a foreign trade for home goods. It was especially framed for that purpose. Yet the imports last month were larger than for any February in previous years, and the balance of trade is against us and steadily increasing. For the eight months from July 1 to March 1, the value of the imports was $607,878,086 and of the exports $584,873,515, or an excess of imports of about $20,000,000. For the twelve months ending with February, the value of the imports was $911,502,807 and of the exports $879,249,993, or an excess of imports of $32,252,814.

SIX THOUSAND resignations of fourth class postmasters are now on file at Washington. Most of these 6,000 "resigners" resigned in favor of some Democrat who has bought their boxes and office paraphernalia. In the appointment of Democratic postmasters the recommendations of Republican predecessors, based on commercial consideration, will not carry much weight, says a Washington correspondent.

It is thought a gang of thieves are systematically at work on the C. and O. Ashland merchants receiving spring stock are finding considerable shortage. Clothing from Baltimore seems to be most in demand. The boxes are opened from the side instead of the top so nothing is disarranged, and only those who have had experience in this line before can detect that there has been a theft before the boxes are opened.

NEARLY $100,000.

That's the Sum the State Will Try to Recover From the Convict Lessees.

The State brings five suits against the convict lessees, instead of one, and the total involved is nearly $100,000, not including interest.

Attorney General Hendrick gives the following synopsis of the suits: "The first is against C. R. Mason & Co. and their sureties for $1,750 for their failure to capture and return to the penitentiary thirty-five escaped convicts at $50 each.

"The second suit is against the Mason-Ford Company and its sureties under the contract of April 27, 1885, for their failure to capture and return to the walls of the prison 215 escaped convicts from April 27, 1885, forward, or $10,750.

"The third is a suit against the Mason-Ford Company and its sureties on its contract of April 1, 1885, to recover interest on the quarterly installments due for rent, and for the balance due on the settlement of August 26, 1891. The amounts prayed for are $8,550.51, with interest from August 26, 1891; also for the sum of $3,339.83, with interest from August 26, 1891; also for the further sum of $837, with interest from April 22, 1892; also for the further sum of $2,000, with interest from the same date.

"The fourth suit is against the Mason-Ford Co. and its sureties on the contract of April 1, 1889, to recover $1,153.33 for extra guards at the Frankfort penitentiary, and for $232.85 for the capture and return of two escaped convicts.

"The fifth is a suit against the Mason-Ford Co. for the following sums: First, for the sum of $32,792.52, for pay of officers and guards at the Eddyville prison from October 2, 1888, to December 24, 1890. Second, for pay of officers and guards at the same prison, from December 24, 1890, up to and including February 28, 1893, amounting to $30,919.03, which is credited with the payment of $7,236.39, leaving a balance due as of February 28, 1893, the sum of $23,682.64. Third, is for sundry bills paid to other parties on the contract of the Mason-Ford Company, to complete the Eddyville prison, amounting to the sum of $15,459.04. Fourth, for a balance of $1,648.23, overpaid the Mason-Ford Company out of the appropriation of $126,000 made by the Legislature to complete the prison."

"To summarize, the total amount sued for in all the suits, not counting interest, which is sued for also, aggregates, $99,358.95.

"The suits present every phase of the question possible for the interest of the State, not only including those claimed by the Governor in his communication to the Legislature, but also others in addition, so that this litigation will settle, one way or the other, final and conclusively, all matters in dispute between the State and the Mason-Ford Company and C. R. Mason & Co., on all contracts, save what remains of the ten-years contract at Eddyville."

Dr. Stockdale's Next Visit.

As will be seen by reference to Dr. Stockdale's ad., the date of his next visit to this city is Friday, March 31, one day only. This noted specialist is now well known to our people, and his visits are hailed with delight by the afflicted, both in the city and surrounding country. Many of the afflicted who placed themselves under the treatment of this eminent specialist have been cured, and others greatly benefited. As an evidence of his great popularity with our people his rooms are always crowded the entire day when he makes his visits to our city. Remember the date—March 31—Central Hotel.

Wanted on a Serious Charge.

Josie Jones, a colored girl not yet sixteen years of age, is soon to become a mother, and she charges Albert Green, also colored, with ruining her under a promise of marriage. She has sued out a warrant before Squire Miller, accusing Albert with seduction, but he has succeeded in keeping out of the way of the officers so far. He has been making his home near Summitt. The offense is a serious one, the penalty being imprisonment in the penitentiary. It is said that Green intended marrying another girl to-day.

Is as Good as a Feast."

But at the same time he invites your attention to his stock of goods, such as
